

Exercise 1

FILL IN THE BLANKS

Write might, could, or may in the sentences below to show possibility.
 More than one answer might be possible.

Ex. Mina might help me with my homework.

1. John and Amy might/could/may get a new kitten.
2. I might/could/may study Japanese next year.
3. Pavel might/could/may try out for hockey next year.
4. Daniel might/may not go to school because he's sick.
5. Could she be our new teacher?
6. We might/could/may try this new restaurant tonight.
7. Louise and Pierre might/could/may get married in the spring.
8. Could that be our bus?
9. They might/may not be ready to take the test.
10. Isabella might/may not join the basketball team this year.

Exercise 2

OUR TRIP

Imagine that you and your partner are taking a trip together soon. Decide where you want to go. Then write down one or two possible plans for each day using modals of possibility.

Example

Destination: Paris

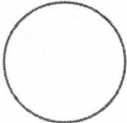

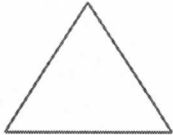

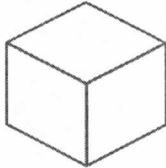

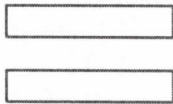

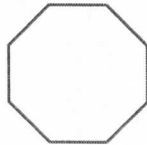

Monday: We might go to the Eiffel Tower if it's sunny.
If it rains, we could go to the Louvre and see the Mona Lisa.

Destination	Vancouver
Monday	After our transatlantic flight we might be tired, so we might not go out.
Tuesday	On Tuesday we could walk along seawalls if it's good weather. If isn't, we could go for a shopping.
Wednesday	If it's sunny, we might sunbathe on the English beach or we could go to Kitsilano Pool for a swim.
Thursday	If we wake up early, we might go to Whistler. and We could ride the Sea to Sky Gondola if we have enough time.
Friday	On Friday we might go to Canada Place and if we want to watch something interesting, we could watch FlyOver Canada show.
Saturday	On Saturday we might ^{the} go shopping to stores on Robson Street. And if we don't spend all our money we could also have dinner at a restaurant.
Sunday	On Sunday we might leave in Vancouver also or we might buy tickets and fly to Toronto.

Exercise 3

WHAT COULD IT BE?

Look at the images. With a partner, come up with some guesses about what each image might be. Use might, could, or may in each sentence.

#	Image	What could this be?
Ex		It could be an envelope. It might be a wide-screen TV.
1		It might be the Sun It could be a whole wheel.
2		It could be an Egyptian's Pyramid It may be a road sign
3		It might be a building. It could be a piece of sugar.
4		It may be an equals sign. It could be rails.
5		It might be a fighting ring. It may be a mosaic element.

Exercise 6

QUIZ

Find one error in each sentence.

Ex. She might coming to the concert with us.

She might come to the concert with us.

1. If I finish my assignment, I go could home early.

If I finish my assignment, I could go home early.

2. Hiro might calls you tomorrow.

Hiro might call you tomorrow.

3. My teacher could not give us homework to do this weekend. We'll find out on Friday.

My teacher might not give us homework to do this weekend. We'll find out on Friday.

4. May that be a UFO?

Could that be a UFO?

5. He might gets a new puppy.

He might get a new puppy.

6. We could not go out tonight. We haven't decided yet.

We might not go out tonight. We haven't decided yet.

7. They may moving to another city next year.

They may move to another city next year.

8. Fatima might takes a year off school to travel around the world.

Fatima might take a year off school to travel around the world.

9. My children maybe absent from school tomorrow.

My children may be absent from school tomorrow.

10. Francisco isn't in class today. May he be sick?

Francisco isn't in class today. ~~May~~ Could he be sick?